

Brittany Lanahan, PTA

Bio

Brittany loves being a PTA because she gets to help people get back to their favorite activities . In her free time she enjoys traveling all over the world with her husband . Her favorite place to travel to is Italy! Brittany's all time favorite place is Kenya . She has been there three times on mission trips . When she's not traveling the world she is with her family and friends . Her goal is to be more involved in the OrthoCarolina Mission Trips to better her use of her skills as a Physical Therapist Assistant!
