

Megan Huber, OTD, OTR/L

Bio

Megan enjoys understanding how patients engage in the world via their hands and collaborating with them to reach their goals. Beyond the therapy office, she enjoys spending time with friends and family, especially hiking and rock climbing. Rainy days offer her the opportunity to experiment with new recipes and immerse herself in good books.

LOCATIONS

- Ballantyne Physical & Hand Therapy

CLINICAL SPECIALTIES

- Specialties

Education

- Indiana University-Purdue University at Indianapolis- Doctorate of Occupational Therapy (OTD)
- The Ohio State University- Bachelor's Degree in Health Sciences, Pre-Occupational Therapy Track, Minor in Integrative Approaches to Health and Wellness

Research

- Wilburn, V. G., Huber, M., Senter, D., & Stoll, H. B. (2022). Considerations for Occupational Therapists in Developing Community-Level Interventions for Youth with High Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs).
- Huber, M. (2021). Doctoral Capstone Experiential at Camp Mariposa: Aaron's Place.
- Klatt, M. D., Wise, E., Gabram, O., Huber, M., Wei, L., & Katz, M. (2019). Exploring Quality of Sleep, Perceived Stress and Resilience in Cancer Survivorship: A Feasibility Study of Mindfulness in Motion. OBM Neurobiology, 3(4), 1-19.
- Mindfulness for Cancer Patients: James Cancer Hospital Livestream Klatt, Research background and practice. Livestreamed to patient rooms.