

Cameron Dellinger PT, DPT

Bio

Cameron was led to his career as a PT following knee dislocations while playing sports during his childhood and teenage years. With this passion and pursuit to become a Physical Therapist, Cameron went to Lenoir Rhyne University to receive his Bachelor of Exercise Science degree. He then attended Western Carolina University to receive his Doctor of Physical Therapy degree, where he graduated in 2022. He has been working in the OrthoCarolina Hickory PT clinic since 2022. Outside of work, Cameron enjoys spending time with his wife and 1-year-old son. He and his wife are looking forward to the birth of their little girl, who is due later this year. In their free time, they enjoy being active in their local church, spending time as a family, and many outdoor activities.
